

37th

October 26-29, 2010
Tan-Tar-A Resort, Osage Beach, MO

Natural Areas Conference

<http://www.naturalarea.org/10Conference/>

YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS THIS OUTSTANDING CONFERENCE

Early Bird Registration has been extended to September 15

The Program is Power Packed With Relevant Topics Spanning a Wide Spectrum of Disciplines

Thought Provoking Plenary

Bob Priddy. Conservation: The Never-Ending Trail

Doug Ladd. A Natural and Cultural History of the Missouri Landscape

Randy Heidorn The Natural Areas Movement as an Incubator of Natural Resource Conservation Trends

Peter Colverson. Natural Area Managers, How Should They Be Trained?

Natural Resources Connections Symposium

A symposium and world café to draw together natural resource managers, academics and students to discuss education and training needs and the challenges and potential solutions to foster a new generation of effective natural resource managers and researchers.

Practical Workshops and Field Trips (workshop and field trip; *workshop only)

- Large Rivers Natural Communities: Ecology and Management
- Caves and Karst: Ecology and Management
- Managing for Diverse Landscapes With Fire
- Stream Ecology and Conservation
- Plant Identification: Grasses and Composites of the Midwest
- Tallgrass Prairie: Ecology and Management
- Glade and Woodland: Ecology and Management
- Dendrochronology and Natural Areas: The Language of Tree Rings
- Macrofungus Ecology and Identification

- *Invasive Plants: A Never Ending Battle
- *Cooperative Weed Management Areas
- *Reptile and Amphibian Ecology and Management
- * Land Trusts, Conservation Easements, and Natural Areas Protection
- *Evaluating and Selecting Conservation Projects
- *GIS and Natural Areas Management
- *Conservation Genetics
- *Human Dimensions - No Child Left Inside

Contributed Paper Sessions

- Invasive Species
- Conservation Planning
- Resource Management and Monitoring
- Rare Species Conservation
- Species and Communities Ecology